CLINICAL RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

- Aug. 2015 – present Graduate Research Assistant, Pediatric Psychology Lab
University of Florida, Department of Clinical and Health Psychology; Gainesville, FL
Mentor: David Janicke, PhD
- Actively participate in clinical research projects described below
 - Participate in study development, recruitment, consent and assessment procedures, data analysis, and manuscript and grant preparation
 - Co-reviewed journal manuscripts under supervision of mentor
- Oct. 2017 – present Graduate Research Assistant, Effectiveness of a Pilot Telehealth Intervention for Youth with Type 1 Diabetes Mellitus
University of Florida, Department of Clinical and Health Psychology, Gainesville, FL
Principal Investigator: David Janicke, PhD, ABPP
Co-Principal Investigators: Brian Olsen, PhD; Anastasia Albanese-O’Neill, PhD, ARNP, CDE
- Telehealth provider for youth with diabetes and their parents

- June 2016 – July 2017 Graduate Research Assistant, Using a New-Onset Diabetes Educator (NODE) program to teach children and their parents about diabetes at the time of diagnosis
University of Florida, Department of Pediatric Endocrinology; Gainesville, FL
 Principal Investigators: Angelina Bernier, MD; Francois Modave, PhD; David Fedele, PhD
- Assisted in the development of study protocol
 - Recruited potential participants
 - Conducted search of mobile applications related to diabetes education
- Oct. 2015 – April 2017 PI Proxy, The Use of Ecological Momentary Assessment to Measure Blood Glucose Monitoring Adherence in Youth with Type 1 Diabetes
University of Florida, Department of Clinical and Health Psychology; Gainesville, FL
 Principal Investigator: David Janicke, PhD, ABPP
- Designed and managed all study tasks
 - Organized recruitment for study participants
 - Conducted data analysis
 - Completed study manuscript and orally defended study design and results
 - Awarded Master's degree as a result of successful defense
- Aug. 2015 – Oct. 2017 Graduate Research Assistant, Cognitive Behavior Therapy for Improving Sleep in Overweight and Obese Youth (R21-HL-121432-02)
University of Florida, Department of Clinical and Health Psychology; Gainesville, FL
 Principal Investigators: David Janicke, PhD; Christina McCrae, PhD
- Conduct assessments and treatment sessions with participants
 - Conduct fidelity checks on therapy treatments
 - Recruit and screen potential participants
 - Trained and supervised undergraduate research assistants on study procedures
 - Managed study finances regarding participant compensation
- July 2015 – Aug 2015 Research Assistant, NUYou: mHealth Intervention to Preserve and Promote Ideal Cardiovascular Health (American Heart Association)
Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, Department of Preventive Medicine, Center for Behavior and Health; Chicago, IL
 Principal Investigator: Bonnie Spring, PhD, ABPP
- Assisted in the development of materials for two year study treating and preserving college student cardiovascular Simple 7 risk factors
 - Managed student-assisted rapid prototyping for smartphone application and social media development
 - Mentored undergraduate research volunteers
- Aug. 2014 – Aug. 2015 Research Assistant, Optimization of Remotely Delivered Intensive Lifestyle Treatment for Obesity (Opt-In) (R01-DK-097364)
Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, Department of Preventive Medicine, Center for Behavior and Health; Chicago, IL
 Principal Investigator: Bonnie Spring, PhD, ABPP
- Coordinated group sessions, randomizations, and IRB communication for six-month weight loss trial with 16 conditions, including text-messaging, coaching calls, meal replacement recommendations, and "Buddy" training
 - Developed content for text messages and health lessons
 - Data entry and recruitment
- Oct. 2015 – Apr. 2015 Coordinator, NUYOU – Development of mHealth Intervention to Prevent and Promote Ideal Cardiovascular Health (American Heart Association)

Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, Department of Preventive Medicine, Center for Behavior and Health; Chicago, IL

Principal Investigator: Bonnie Spring, PhD, ABPP

- Designed protocol, recruited, ran, and performed data analysis for focus group study to collect formative data for main study
- Coordinated study staff

Oct. 2012 – June 2015 Lifestyle Health Coach, Make Better Choices (MBC) 2 – Multiple Behavior Change in Diet and Activity (R01-HL-075451-05)

Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, Department of Preventive Medicine, Center for Behavior and Health; Chicago, IL

Principal Investigator: Bonnie Spring, PhD, ABPP

- Tele-coached participants to improve health behaviors using motivational interviewing and CBT for nine-month mHealth trial assessing sequential vs. simultaneous diet and activity change as compared to a stress reduction control group
- Administered clinical and physical anthropometric assessments
- Participated in regular fidelity checks and data audits
- Recruitment and data entry

Aug 2014 – Feb. 2015 Research Assistant, Online Image Perception Study: Development of an Implicit Food Attitude Measure (Director's Fund)

Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, Department of Preventive Medicine, Center for Behavior and Health; Chicago, IL

Principal Investigator: Bonnie Spring, PhD, ABPP

- Developed recruitment methods for study which assessed implicit and explicit attitudes towards healthy and unhealthy foods using computer images
- Participated in study development

July 2014 – Jan 2015 Research Assistant, Time Restricted Eating Diet (AVON Foundation)

Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, Department of Preventive Medicine, Center for Behavior and Health; Chicago, IL

Principal Investigator: Bonnie Spring, PhD, ABPP

- Assisted in the development of protocol and technology component structure for feasibility study assessing adherence to 8-hour eating window in 24-hour day to prevent breast cancer, using smartwatch and phone to log adherence

June 2011 – June 2012 Research Volunteer, Narrative Analysis of Generativity in Older Adults

Northwestern University, Foley Center for the Study of Human Lives; Evanston, IL

Principal Investigator: Dan P. McAdams, PhD

- Conducted interviews and coded data for project studying the relationship between virtues and generativity
- Participated in weekly lab meetings to discuss lab presentations and publications
